

SPARTANBURG, S. C., April 21, 1864.

When the Farmer or Planter, shall fall into the hands of the Tax in Kind...

Any person knowing of any one in his neighborhood who has failed to make a true report of any article of Tax in Kind...

We take pleasure in announcing that the Episcopal Church in our town is about to be completed...

We publish this week extracts from this bold and vigorous speech, as delivered in the Federal Congress...

But before I close this denunciaty letter, I must do justice to the Navy, which so ably performed the part assigned to it...

In view of the scarcity of seeds of all kinds, let me suggest to your readers an easy mode of propagating Irish potatoes...

The Yankees are not to be out-done in meanness and dirty work, while we are at war with them...

REMOVAL OF THE TREASURY NOTE DIVISION.—We are requested to state for general information...

DALETON, April 20.—A large force of the enemy, consisting of infantry, cavalry and artillery, attacked our pickets on the Ringgold road...

Bank has been defeated the second time, and utterly routed by Kirby Smith. His loss is heavy...

It is stated that an overwhelming majority of the Republican members of both branches of Congress are opposed to the re-election of Lincoln.

A sharp skirmish took place a few days since at Watauga Bridge, East Tennessee. A large force of Yankees attacked General W. A. Jackson...

The cancellation of the old currency is progressing at the rate of $20,000,000 per month. All the hospitals in and near Richmond have been lately cleaned out.

Four men flying to the "Iron Clad Minstrels," lately playing in Richmond, were captured in Gloucester county...

PLANTING POTATOES.

Highly interesting and important intelligence has been received here from the north side of the Potomac in relation to Gen Grant's campaign in Virginia.

It is reported and believed that his movement upon Richmond will be by three columns—anyhow by two.

One of these columns, starting from his present lines on the Rappahannock, he will lead himself. The second will move under Burnside on the south side of James river...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

A very remarkable case of cure of a stiff joint was recently effected by the surgeons in one of the hospitals of this city.

A MOST EXCELLENT MEASURE.—A member of Congress from Tennessee has now in his pocket the draft of a bill which he proposes to introduce...

QUICK WORK.—Buckland, in his Curiosities of Natural History, says: "When in Paris I paid a visit to the horse slaughtering place at Montfaucon..."

BARBARIETY OF NEGRO SOLDIERS.—We are permitted (says the Southern Observer) to make the following extract from a letter, written by a lady in Yazoo City...

KNAPSACKS DISCARDED.—Knapsacks have fallen into general disuse and disrepute in the Confederate armies...

THE CONFESION OF AN ABOLITIONIST.—In "A Trip to Cuba," written by ... H. Dana, Jr., of Boston, an out and out Abolitionist, he is forced by being brought into contact with the negro, to make this confession:

Lincoln has appointed Commissioners to sell land in the rebel States, and the following is the result as far as we have heard from:

THE MARIETTA PAPER MILLS, though among the very best in the Confederacy, and though the Government and newspapers are clamorous for paper, are not working up to their full capacity.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—It is believed that Gen. Lee would not venture on an offensive movement. The Tribune's special despatch says the ninth army corps is now 40,000 strong.

PLANTING POTATOES.

Highly interesting and important intelligence has been received here from the north side of the Potomac in relation to Gen Grant's campaign in Virginia.

It is reported and believed that his movement upon Richmond will be by three columns—anyhow by two.

One of these columns, starting from his present lines on the Rappahannock, he will lead himself. The second will move under Burnside on the south side of James river...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

A very remarkable case of cure of a stiff joint was recently effected by the surgeons in one of the hospitals of this city.

A MOST EXCELLENT MEASURE.—A member of Congress from Tennessee has now in his pocket the draft of a bill which he proposes to introduce...

QUICK WORK.—Buckland, in his Curiosities of Natural History, says: "When in Paris I paid a visit to the horse slaughtering place at Montfaucon..."

BARBARIETY OF NEGRO SOLDIERS.—We are permitted (says the Southern Observer) to make the following extract from a letter, written by a lady in Yazoo City...

KNAPSACKS DISCARDED.—Knapsacks have fallen into general disuse and disrepute in the Confederate armies...

THE CONFESION OF AN ABOLITIONIST.—In "A Trip to Cuba," written by ... H. Dana, Jr., of Boston, an out and out Abolitionist, he is forced by being brought into contact with the negro, to make this confession:

Lincoln has appointed Commissioners to sell land in the rebel States, and the following is the result as far as we have heard from:

THE MARIETTA PAPER MILLS, though among the very best in the Confederacy, and though the Government and newspapers are clamorous for paper, are not working up to their full capacity.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—It is believed that Gen. Lee would not venture on an offensive movement. The Tribune's special despatch says the ninth army corps is now 40,000 strong.

PLANTING POTATOES.

Highly interesting and important intelligence has been received here from the north side of the Potomac in relation to Gen Grant's campaign in Virginia.

It is reported and believed that his movement upon Richmond will be by three columns—anyhow by two.

One of these columns, starting from his present lines on the Rappahannock, he will lead himself. The second will move under Burnside on the south side of James river...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

A very remarkable case of cure of a stiff joint was recently effected by the surgeons in one of the hospitals of this city.

A MOST EXCELLENT MEASURE.—A member of Congress from Tennessee has now in his pocket the draft of a bill which he proposes to introduce...

QUICK WORK.—Buckland, in his Curiosities of Natural History, says: "When in Paris I paid a visit to the horse slaughtering place at Montfaucon..."

BARBARIETY OF NEGRO SOLDIERS.—We are permitted (says the Southern Observer) to make the following extract from a letter, written by a lady in Yazoo City...

KNAPSACKS DISCARDED.—Knapsacks have fallen into general disuse and disrepute in the Confederate armies...

THE CONFESION OF AN ABOLITIONIST.—In "A Trip to Cuba," written by ... H. Dana, Jr., of Boston, an out and out Abolitionist, he is forced by being brought into contact with the negro, to make this confession:

Lincoln has appointed Commissioners to sell land in the rebel States, and the following is the result as far as we have heard from:

THE MARIETTA PAPER MILLS, though among the very best in the Confederacy, and though the Government and newspapers are clamorous for paper, are not working up to their full capacity.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—It is believed that Gen. Lee would not venture on an offensive movement. The Tribune's special despatch says the ninth army corps is now 40,000 strong.

PLANTING POTATOES.

Highly interesting and important intelligence has been received here from the north side of the Potomac in relation to Gen Grant's campaign in Virginia.

It is reported and believed that his movement upon Richmond will be by three columns—anyhow by two.

One of these columns, starting from his present lines on the Rappahannock, he will lead himself. The second will move under Burnside on the south side of James river...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

A very remarkable case of cure of a stiff joint was recently effected by the surgeons in one of the hospitals of this city.

A MOST EXCELLENT MEASURE.—A member of Congress from Tennessee has now in his pocket the draft of a bill which he proposes to introduce...

QUICK WORK.—Buckland, in his Curiosities of Natural History, says: "When in Paris I paid a visit to the horse slaughtering place at Montfaucon..."

BARBARIETY OF NEGRO SOLDIERS.—We are permitted (says the Southern Observer) to make the following extract from a letter, written by a lady in Yazoo City...

KNAPSACKS DISCARDED.—Knapsacks have fallen into general disuse and disrepute in the Confederate armies...

THE CONFESION OF AN ABOLITIONIST.—In "A Trip to Cuba," written by ... H. Dana, Jr., of Boston, an out and out Abolitionist, he is forced by being brought into contact with the negro, to make this confession:

Lincoln has appointed Commissioners to sell land in the rebel States, and the following is the result as far as we have heard from:

THE MARIETTA PAPER MILLS, though among the very best in the Confederacy, and though the Government and newspapers are clamorous for paper, are not working up to their full capacity.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—It is believed that Gen. Lee would not venture on an offensive movement. The Tribune's special despatch says the ninth army corps is now 40,000 strong.

PLANTING POTATOES.

Highly interesting and important intelligence has been received here from the north side of the Potomac in relation to Gen Grant's campaign in Virginia.

It is reported and believed that his movement upon Richmond will be by three columns—anyhow by two.

One of these columns, starting from his present lines on the Rappahannock, he will lead himself. The second will move under Burnside on the south side of James river...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

It is not for me to mention the source from which this information was obtained, nor the channel through which it was communicated...

A very remarkable case of cure of a stiff joint was recently effected by the surgeons in one of the hospitals of this city.

A MOST EXCELLENT MEASURE.—A member of Congress from Tennessee has now in his pocket the draft of a bill which he proposes to introduce...

QUICK WORK.—Buckland, in his Curiosities of Natural History, says: "When in Paris I paid a visit to the horse slaughtering place at Montfaucon..."

BARBARIETY OF NEGRO SOLDIERS.—We are permitted (says the Southern Observer) to make the following extract from a letter, written by a lady in Yazoo City...

KNAPSACKS DISCARDED.—Knapsacks have fallen into general disuse and disrepute in the Confederate armies...

THE CONFESION OF AN ABOLITIONIST.—In "A Trip to Cuba," written by ... H. Dana, Jr., of Boston, an out and out Abolitionist, he is forced by being brought into contact with the negro, to make this confession:

Lincoln has appointed Commissioners to sell land in the rebel States, and the following is the result as far as we have heard from:

THE MARIETTA PAPER MILLS, though among the very best in the Confederacy, and though the Government and newspapers are clamorous for paper, are not working up to their full capacity.

ST. LOUIS, April 25.—It is believed that Gen. Lee would not venture on an offensive movement. The Tribune's special despatch says the ninth army corps is now 40,000 strong.

THE LATE EXPEDITION INTO FLORIDA.—The committee appointed by the Yankee Congress to inquire into the facts of the late expedition into Florida have made their report...

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, January 13, 1864. Major General Gillmore: I understand an effort is being made by some worthy gentlemen to reconstruct a legal State Government in Florida...

Notice to Soldiers Board of Relief. The Commissioners of the Soldiers' Board of Relief will meet at Spartanburg Court House, on the 2d Monday in May next.

Young Men Wanted. SULLIVAN'S ISLAND, April 7th, 1864. Young men under the age of eighteen (18) will be received in Captain Ripley's cavalry company...

Notice. I will give WYATT LIPSCOMB $1000, if he will give the 1st of November, I will longer join fences with him any longer.

To Rent. A COMFORTABLE Cottage containing four Rooms, situated on Church Street, all new and well enclosed.

Found. In the Streets of Spartanburg, on Saturday last, a small amount of money, which the owner can have by identifying the same and paying for this advertisement.

Line? Lime? Lime!! The kilns. Fresh lime is now on hand of the best quality, for exchange only for provisions, leather, iron etc.

Watch Lost. LOST by Mrs. M. B. WALKER on the night of the 20th instant, a medium sized LAURENCE WATCH, Chateaufort and Egg attached.

S. AND U. RAILROAD. NO FREIGHTS will be delivered from the Depot at Spartanburg until all charges are paid.

For Sale. A few good substantial Carriages and Buggies will be sold at a reasonable price to be paid for in any kind of provisions.

Dental Notice. I WILL be in my office only three days in the week, MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY.

Lost. A CAPTAIN'S Military Cap trimmed with gold lace. By leaving it at this office the finder will be properly rewarded.